

High Tunstall College of Science Curriculum Intent

Subject: Physical Education Year: 7 Half

Topic: Football

	Football	Progress
Topic	Key ideas	R	A	G
Football	Passing technique over varied distances
	Dribbling technique.
	Shooting technique from varied angles and distances
	Tackling and defending strategies.
	Use of formations in a game.

Lesson	Learning Focus	Assessment	Key Words
1	Passing technique and implementation into small sided games.	Formative assessment through questioning and observation in gameplay and isolated drills.	Part of foot used depending on distance; angle; power; follow-through.
2	Dribbling technique. Introduction to full game play.	Formative assessment through questioning and observation in gameplay and isolated drills.	Possession; control.
3	Shooting, changing angle of the shot, revisit game play.	Formative assessment through questioning and observation in gameplay and isolated drills.	Accuracy; aim; target; angle of shot.
4	Defending/Tackling, introduction to defensive shape within gameplay.	Formative assessment through questioning and observation in gameplay and isolated drills.	Tackling; jockeying; press; defensive shape
5	Formations and Game play, investigation of various positions within a set formation for a game of football.	Summative assessment during game-play.	Formation; Shape; Attack; Defense; Positions