

High Tunstall College of Science Curriculum Intent

Subject: Handball Year: 8 Half term: 1

Topic: Handball

	Handball	Progress
Topic	Key ideas	R	A	G
Handball	Passing technique and receiving ball on the move over varying distances, and Dribbling the ball, three step rule and technique. Effectively outwitting opponents under pressure
	Shooting with a bent arm technique, varying styles such as jump shot from various angles and distances whilst coping with pressure
	Defensive shape, blocking and tackling combining individual and team strategies
	Tactics and formations when in game context whilst investigating various tactics and strategies

Lesson	Learning Focus	Assessment	Key Words
1	Passing and receiving with accuracy over varying distances, handling defensive pressure and moving into small sided games	Formatively during gameplay and in isolated drill	Overhead, side pass, chest pass
2	Dribbling effectively and taking on opponents, handling the ball under pressure whilst maintaining close control	Formatively during gameplay and in isolated drills.	Double dribble, travelling
3	Shooting with the correct technique on varying angles and defensive pressure	Formatively during gameplay and in isolated drills	Jump Shot, bent arm technique
4	Defensive shape, blocking effectively looking to quickly apply pressure and force a mistake from the opposition	Formatively during gameplay and in isolated drills.	6:0 defence, man marking, zonal marking
5	Tactics during game play and implementing differing tactics throughout the game	Formatively during gameplay and in isolated drills.	Pressure, game play.