

High Tunstall College of Science Curriculum Intent

Subject: Operations

Year: 11

Half Term 2

Topic: Operations

	Business Studies	Progress
Topic	Key ideas	R	A	G
Operations	You should be able to explain how customer service needs to be measured and monitored by a business, and how they must focus on customer engagement and how it impacts the business.
	You need to understand why and how consumers are protected by law and can affect business activity daily. How the laws affect different situations.
	Working with suppliers and how the supplier has influence as a stakeholder

Lessons	Learning Focus	Assessment	Key Words
13	Customer service definition and how it works for different business types. Before, after and during sales.	Knowledge test	Product knowledge, customer service, online, customer engagement, repeat customers, retain, reputation, sales, before, after, during
14	How it changes customer services differs for online business v stores. The main objectives of customer services needs to be understood and the positive affect of good product knowledge and customer engagement—in context Assessment
15	What consumer law is and why impact is has on business and on consumers.	Knowledge test Deep marked assessment linked to assessment calendar	Consumer, rights, laws, as described, fit for purpose, satisfactory quality, consumer rights act 2015, fairness
16	Examples of businesses affected by consumer law Which business is most impacted by the laws and changes to them. What other rights do consumers have? Assessment
17	Understand that suppliers affect the business and what a supplier is How the supply chain is key for the delivery to the user.	Knowledge test Exam questions from previous exam	Logistics, procurement, supply chain, costs, reliability, transportation, goods, services
18	Role of procurement
19	Procurement in context to a real business
20	Reasons why suppliers are chosen is important and logistics which affect this. Assessment and feedback		